About the Event

A pan-Indian devotional music experience blending Carnatic fusion & bhajan clubbing.

Featuring Uthara Unnikrishnan

Uthara Unnikrishnan (born 11th June 2004) is an Indian playback singer. In 2015, she won India's National Film Award for Best Female Playback Singer at the 62nd National Film Awards for her rendition of the song "Azhagu" from the 2014 Tamil film Saivam, a family drama directed by A. L. Vijay. She received the award at the age of 10, becoming its youngest recipient.

Mahesh Raghavan

Mahesh Raghvan is a music producer and performer who blends Indian classical music with electronic and Western pop influences. Raghvan is known for his YouTube project, FLAIR—Carnatic Music 2.0, where he creates modern electronic versions of Carnatic pieces and Indian-style versions of Western pop songs.

Shravan Shridhar

Trained in Carnatic vocals and violin for over 15 years, Shravan Shridhar blends classical depth with genres like rock, electronica, blues and Western classical. A performer on Airtel Super Singer, he has shared the stage with legends including Rajesh Vaidhya and appeared at the audio launch of Acham Yenbadhu Madamaiyada in the presence of A. R. Rahman. A sought-after live and session violinist in South India, he brings a powerful fusion edge to every performance.

Sharanya Srinivas

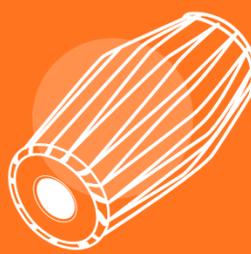

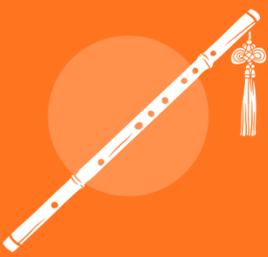

Sharanya Srinivas is an Indian playback singer and the daughter of veteran singer Srinivas. Known for her soulful voice, she debuted under A.R. Rahman in Ambikapathy. She balances a successful film career with independent music and live performances.

Yes, it's a Ticketed event.

Expected Footfall: 8000+

The event will be access-controlled through ticketing and supported by a strong promotional push, alongside a well-established community that regularly engages with Aunty Social Events.

It is also likely to draw a dedicated audience following the featured performers – Uthara Unnikrishnan, Mahesh Raghavan, and Shravan Shridhar. We anticipate a healthy turnout of a discerning crowd, including young adults and families.

Why partner with us?

Bhajan Night isn't just another event with logo placements; it's a curated cultural experience that people emotionally connect with. Inspired by the Bhakti movement's idea of shared expression through music, we create spaces that feel authentic, inclusive, and memorable.

Partnering with us positions your brand alongside community, calm, and culture, not noise. You're not just visible; you're meaningfully present in a moment people choose to be part of.
